November 23 and 24

Exhibition length will be determined at the time of acceptance, generally varying from 3 months to 1 year.

Please note:

The facilitators of this exhibition will handle all artwork with care and consideration at all times. Central Piedmont Community College will not accept any liability for artwork damaged during the installation, viewing or dismantling of CPCC Exhibitions. Your signature on the Inventory Card is proof that you agree to this condition. Artists are required to retrieve work when notified of its release. Artists are required to inform the Visual Arts office of any changes of contact information. Work left unclaimed after 30 days of written notification will become property of the Art Department.
